

EASTER MORNING

Who is it you are looking for?
Who?

Mary,
Looking for her Lord,
Early in the morning,
While it was still dark,
Looking for Jesus,
Expecting his death-wrapped body,
Finding, instead, the stone of surprises and loss.

The men come and go,
But Mary stays and weeps
For the love of her Lord.
Looking, looking into the darkness,
She weeps.

Angels in white turn her to the light,
And the possibility of grace.

And in the speaking of her name, the world changes.

Mary.
Looking, looking no longer,
The Lord lives, gloriously,
For Mary.

He lives for all who look.

Who is it you are looking for?
Who?

Easter transformation by Revd Keith

Transformation – the word means a marked change in form, nature or appearance. The classic examples are the change from a chrysalis to a beautiful butterfly or the change from a wee tadpole into a frog. There can be remarkable transformations in people's fortunes too.

Thinking about transformation took me back to one of the most famous political put downs of all time – Vince Cable's comment on Gordon Brown: 'Mr Speaker, the House has noticed the Prime Minister's remarkable transformation in the last few weeks from Stalin to Mr Bean, creating chaos out of order, rather than order out of chaos.'

A bodily transformation...

Easter Day is all about transformation. Most obviously, of course, the remarkable transformation of Jesus' earthly body, after three days in the tomb, into a glorious renewed and resurrected body. Still recognisably Jesus, but with a very different physicality, reflecting the heavenly dimension. And the agent of that transformation was the Holy Spirit of God, the breath of God.

... for everyone

But the transformation that took place that first Easter Day affected more than simply Jesus himself; it changed the world for everyone. In a classic chapter on the resurrection, St Paul says: 'If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile: you are still in your sins....But Christ has indeed been raised, the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep.' The physical transformation that happened to Jesus that first Easter Day pre-figures what awaits us all. Jesus' resurrection is the basis for the Christian hope for all those loved ones who have died, as well as for us.

The cross, that brought death, dealt with our sins. Forgiveness and reconciliation with God is now available. 'For as in Adam all die,' Paul continues. By 'Adam' he means in our human nature, 'so in Christ will all be made alive.' On that first Easter Day, Paul says: '...death has been swallowed up in victory.'

A spiritual transformation

Furthermore, because Jesus was resurrected, the 'life of the age to come' broke into our world, and now we can begin to experience that 'life of the age to come'.

If I ask children what the best things about Easter is, the chances are that before long they'll come up with chocolate eggs. Originally, the Easter Egg symbolised the empty tomb of Jesus after he had been resurrected. But the egg is also a symbol of new life. Real eggs have transformation built into them. The fertilised hen's egg will eventually hatch and from inside

PALM SUNDAY APRIL 14

10.30am at Hurley: Parish Palm
Sunday Service

The last Sunday in Lent is Palm Sunday (or Passion Sunday), the start of Holy Week when we remember the final week of Jesus's life. We gather outside the church for the procession with palms recalling Jesus entering Jerusalem riding on a donkey. After the children leave for their Explorers Sunday School in the Priory Room, we recall the Last Supper as we celebrate communion before accompanying Jesus through the last week of his life in readings and hymns.

THE PASCHAL TRIDUUM

Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and the Easter Vigil represent one uninterrupted service of worship. Please come and experience the last days of Jesus's life, culminating in his crucifixion and resurrection.

Celebrate Holy

MAUNDAY THURSDAY, APRIL 18

7.30pm, Littlewick Green: Holy Communion followed by the Vigil.

Maundy, a corruption of Latin, mandatum means new commandment: 'Just as I have loved you, you should also love one another.' (John 13: 34). At the Last Supper Jesus washed his disciples feet. On Maundy Thursday we re-enact this by the priest washing the feet of representative members of the congregation.

This is followed by the Communion, obeying Jesus's command at the Last Supper: 'Do this in remembrance of me'. Then the transition to Good Friday begins and the altar is stripped and all decoration removed, symbolising the stripping of Jesus, both his clothing

Week and Easter in our Parish

Here we give more details of the services to be held for this year's Holy Week and Easter, from April 14. They are among the most important in the church calendar. Services and events marked 😊 are especially suitable for young children.

dimmed as the Vigil begins. The church remains open for quiet prayer and meditation until 10.30pm. Feel free to come and go as you please.

GOOD FRIDAY, APRIL 19

10.30am Hurley: Family Service followed by hot cross buns. 😊

1.30pm Stubbings: Good Friday
meditation

At the Family Service, we hear the story of the first Good Friday and hint at the good news to come.

At the Good Friday meditation, we wait with Jesus as he dies on the cross, using pictures, reflections, prayers and music. In the last half hour, we hear the Passion Gospel read. Please feel free to come when you wish.

HOLY SATURDAY, APRIL 20

8pm Littlewick Green: The Vigil 😊
The silence of the tomb. Then, in the evening, at the Easter Vigil, we move from that darkness towards the light of the resurrection.

The Easter Vigil service includes the lighting of the Paschal candle from a bonfire, lit outside the church, the official start of the Easter season and the renewal of baptism vows.

This years' Annual Parochial Church Council

THE ANNUAL Parochial Church Meeting will take place on Sunday 28th April at 10.30am in Littlewick Church after the Parish Service 'Easter Praise with Holy Communion.' Nomination forms for Churchwardens, Deanery Synod representatives and PCC members will be at the back of the churches shortly. Please consider in prayer whether you should stand for these important roles and come and reflect on all that has happened in our churches over the last year and what 2019/20 might have in store.

Diocese is promoting a Safer Church

The Diocese of Oxford is working towards a church which is safer for everyone and we in this Parish are actively promoting a Safer Church.

THE CARE and protection of children and vulnerable adults involved in Church activities are the responsibility of everyone who participates in the life of the Church.

Members of Burchetts Green PCC, and volunteers in different roles, are undertaking Safeguarding Awareness courses and Safeguarding training, both online and at locations throughout the Diocese.

The aim is to promote a safer environment and culture; to have a safe recruitment system, and to respond promptly to safeguarding concerns and risks. There is also a responsibility to care pastorally for survivors of abuse and other affected persons.

If you are concerned that someone you know is at risk, or presents a risk to others, please seek advice from a Safeguarding Advisor or report the matter to the local authority social care services or the police.

Silvan setting chosen for Sunday School

I am pleased to report that following the awarding of a grant to cover the full cost of construction, the PCC approved us applying for planning permission for the erection of a Sunday School Cabin. Our Planning Application was lodged on the 8th March and is now live. Our Planning Application number is 19/00663.

The cabin will be constructed in red cedar with a cedar shingles roof. It will be fully insulated and heated, so will be available all the year round. It will have it's own toilet. I have placed a board at the back of church with the various drawings and illustrations displayed. The cabin will be a real asset to our church providing a much needed meeting space when not used for our Sunday School.

I expect a decision from RBWM in early April. If it is approved then we will apply for a Faculty quite quickly afterwards and hope to have the cabin build by the Summer. Richard Moores side of the world?

teenage boys from Marlow have taken their own lives. This is a tragedy beyond comprehension. The loss of life by deliberate action speaks of desperation, of isolation, of being overwhelmed by dark thoughts and feelings that make normal rational decision-making impossible.

Lost futures

The consequential suffering and pain that their families are struggling with can only be imagined. The teenagers, with their whole lives in front of them to develop and flourish, have lost everything that should be theirs – the vibrant energy of youth, the fun, the learning, relationships and above all their place in their families.

At last Saturday's Diocesan Synod, Bishop Steven's presidential address, on the crisis of mental health among our young people was a powerful analysis of the problem and the effect that social media can have on vulnerable young people.

I quote from his speech: 'Nothing is hidden. There are no private spaces. There is no place beyond the reach of cruelty and unkindness. No sanctuary. No backstage area where I can take off the mask and be myself. How can I find out who I am if there are no private spaces? How can I grow and change and learn if every mistake seems to be exposed to public gaze and retained on servers on the other cry from the heart. As I watched the early evening news this evening, a mother was speaking about how her anorexic daughter's illness had been driven by images on Instagram. Thankfully she had responded to treatment.

As Christians we are challenged to bring good news to the young people we meet in all walks of life – through schools, sports and more. Offering care and support and, importantly, helping them to know they are loved, whatever their situation, is responding in a Christlike way, with compassion.

No boundaries

Young people today live without the boundaries that older generations lived within. They are cast adrift in the chaos of life, to cope as best they can. Fear of missing out, of being different, all add to their anxiety.

There is much that is being achieved across our Diocese with young people, and that is to be celebrated, but we can always do more. Listening to the voices of the young, offering opportunities for them to belong to our church communities and supporting their ideas are all positive ways of just being there for them.

Our own children and emerges new life, a chick. And it's a new and transformed life that Jesus offers to each of us, not just for the future, but for now as the same Holy Spirit that resurrected him indwells and changes us.

'I am the resurrection and the life,' Jesus said to his friend Martha. 'The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by

Is a refresher course in Christian living for you?

A THREE-DAY 'Cursillo' residential weekend at Cold Ash, near Thatcham, is designed for people already committed to Christ. This is a refresher course in Christian living from May 16 – 19. It is a preparation for the full life that God promises.

During the weekend lay people and clergy give short talks that offer an intensive course in Christian living. These talks are intermingled with meditations.

You are encouraged to take part in small group discussions with people who are searching, discovering and growing in their faith. Contact Keith to find out more.

A previous attendee writes: 'I gained a fresh and wonderful insight into God's infinite and unconditional love for me. I've been building on this ever since.'

believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?'

'Do you believe this?' Jesus asked Martha all those centuries ago. It is a question that Jesus gently asks each one of us today.

As we celebrate Jesus' resurrection, his bursting forth from the tomb, are we simply joining in a traditional cultural event, or have we come to Jesus in faith and been transformed by the Holy Spirit who brings us, to use Jesus' own words, 'Life in all its fullness.' Keith

Help the children

CHILDREN'S SOCIETY boxes, for you to collect in your home, are available from Mary Gilbert (822828) or Jean Tinkler (822808). Give either a ring if you'd like to help disadvantaged children at home and abroad.

Cubs and Beavers need you

ARE YOU free Monday or Wednesday evenings and aged 18 to 80 and young at heart, then Littlewick Cubs and Beavers need you. The meetings, which teach children many important skills for life, are so popular that there is a waiting list. This is because the Littlewick troops have many members who aren't from the village.

YOUR ANCESTRY?

Are you interested in finding out where your ancestors came from and their occupations?

If so, I will try and trace your ancestry as far back as records allow and chart your tree by hand.
